

REAL ESTATE LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR - GERMANY

Winner: Mütze Korsch
Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH

Mütze Korsch Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH (MKRG) is a completely independent German full-service law firm with offices in Düsseldorf and Cologne. The main areas of MKRG's legal practice are:

- Real Estate including Construction Law, Public Private Partnerships, Public Procurement Law;
- Corporate Law, M&A including Financial and Capital Markets Law as well as Insolvency Advice and Restructuring;
- Labor Law (individual as well as collective) including Immigration Law;
- IP / IT, Commercial and Competition Law.

MKRG was established in 2004. Although the brand MKRG is quite young, the partners are very experienced. Due to the Sabanes-Oxley regulations, PwC separated from its former law firm of which the Düsseldorf and Cologne offices finally became MKRG. However, MKRG is still able to work inter alia on a best-friends basis with PricewaterhouseCoopers

Real Estate

Besides decades of experience MKRG's practice group Real Estate offers comprehensive industry and expert knowledge. Public authorities and transportation companies are counted among MKRG's clients as well as big and medium-sized companies of the building and construction industry, property owners, real estate companies, plant engineers, project developers, project managers, architects, engineers, estate-agents, property developers, construction management agents and international investors. MKRG has one of the leading legal specialist teams in construction law, real estate transactions and projects as well as public procurement law and provides an extensive range of services in order to develop multi-disciplinary strategies and solutions. MKRG's lawyers are also editors and contributors to the internationally well received book "Real Estate Investments in Germany". As regards real estate transactions and projects MKRG's Real Estate team works hand in hand with its Corporate Law / M&A specialists thus combining expert knowledge and multidisciplinary into a unique powerful and flexible task force. The ACQ Country Award 2009 in the category "Real Estate Law Firm of the Year-Germany" was conferred to MKRG only a couple of months after MKRG had received the ACQ Global Award 2009 in the category "Small Law Firm of the Year – Western Europe", already. Both awards confirm that MKRG's international industry peers acknowledge not only that MKRG's lawyers are experts in their respective fields working at the highest legal quality standards, but also MKRG's particular transaction expertise on the interface between corporate law / M&A and real estate including construction as well as public procurement law.
